OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification dated the 1*st May* 1929.

It has been brought to the notice of the undersigned that bee-keepers in Malnad are unwilling to adopt the improvements suggested to them by this Department as a result of their fear that Government may ultimately put a tax on this cottage industry. The undersigned should like to assure bee-keepers that Government have no such intention whatsoever. Their sole object is to effect such improvements in the industry as will enable bee-keepers with less trouble and waste to produce more honey of superior quality and to sell it at a higher price. Bee keepers of the malnad are therefore requested to test the methods recommended by the Department, and if found more suitable, to adopt them.

LESLIE C. COLEMAN,
Director of Agriculture.
